VIRGINIA ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT PARTNERSHIP
www.YesVirginia.org

Only a few locations can guarantee the right combination of resources that are crucial to your business's success. Virginia's premier location offers excellent domestic and international access. Centrally located on the U.S. East Coast, 40 percent of the U.S. population is within a day's drive, and our integrated transportation system of highways, railroads, airports and seaports ensures that you can reach every one of your markets efficiently. Close proximity to Washington, D.C. facilitates contact with policy makers and the federal government system.

Virginia continues to rank among America's leading states for business by CNBC and Forbes.com. Business-first values, easy access to markets, stable and competitive operating costs, and a talented workforce all drove Virginia to the top. This unique combination of assets has encouraged businesses to prosper here for more than 400 years. Like you, they searched the world over for that convergence of resources that would help ensure their prosperity. For them, their search ended here. Chances are yours will too.

- AAA bond rating- Virginia has maintained a AAA rating since 1938, longer than any other state.
- Right-to-work law allows individuals the right to work regardless of membership in a labor union or organization.
- Corporate income tax rate of 6% has not been increased since 1972.
- Headquarters to 37 Fortune 1000 firms.
- Headquarters to 52 firms each with annual revenue over $1 billion.
- More than 17,300 high-tech establishments operate in Virginia.
- More than 700 internationally-owned businesses from 45 countries are located in Virginia.
- Ranks third among the 50 states as a recipient of federal R&D funds.
- Streamlined permitting process.
- Recruitment training programs to help new businesses become operational faster.
- Programs at little or no cost to help businesses increase international sales.

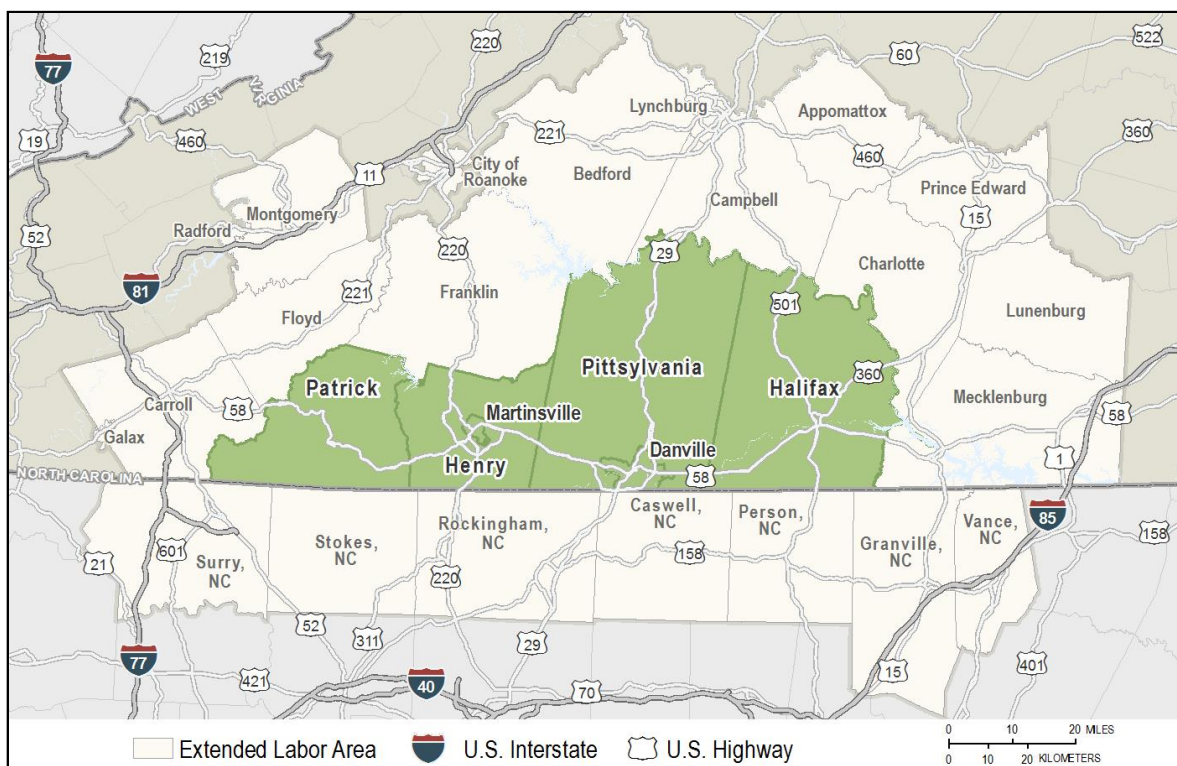

Location

Southern Virginia, located along the Virginia/North Carolina State line, encompasses 2,706 square miles. The region is dominated by a strong manufacturing sector that comprises companies in the food processing, plastics and wood products sectors. Other significant economic activity results from the back office, distribution and agricultural sectors. High-quality four-lane divided highways and rail transportation systems service the area providing convenient access to markets on the East Coast.

An excellent highway system coupled with easy access to interstates make the region extremely well-suited to reach mid-Atlantic markets and international shipping facilities.

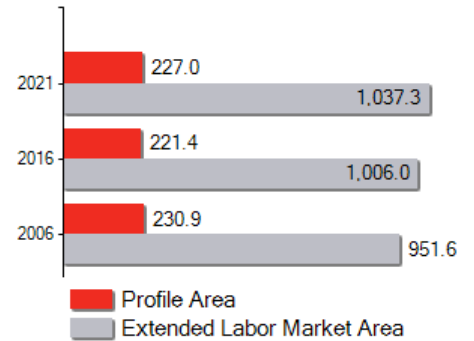

The city of Danville, located in the south-central portion of the region, is 143 miles southwest of Richmond, the state capital; 81 miles southeast of Roanoke; 50 miles northeast of Greensboro, NC and 95 miles north of Raleigh Durham.

Government and Taxes

Government

Southern Virginia includes the counties of Halifax, Henry, Patrick, and Pittsylvania, along with the cities of Danville and Martinsville.

Each locality has a comprehensive plan and a zoning and subdivision ordinance.

Each county has a board of supervisors and a county administrator. The cities have a city council and city manager.

There are ten incorporated towns in Southern Virginia.

Taxes

Localities in Virginia collect a 1% sales tax. They do not tax other items taxed at the State level.

Counties and cities in Virginia are separate taxing entities. Therefore, a company pays taxes to either a county or to a city.

If a company is located in a town, it pays town and county taxes except for utility taxes which are paid only to the town and the license tax which is paid only to the town unless town law permits the additional collection of a county tax.

Manufacturers pay real estate, machinery and tools, truck and automobile, utility, and sales taxes.

Nonmanufacturers pay real estate, tangible personal property, truck and automobile, utility, and sales taxes. They also may pay either a merchants' capital or a license tax.

Professional auto racing comes to nearby Virginia International Raceway, South Boston Speedway, and Martinsville Speedway numerous times each year, attracting the best in both professional and amateur auto racing. Located within a short drive are NASCAR venues such as Lowe's Motor Speedway (Charlotte, NC) and Richmond International Raceway (Richmond, VA).

Community Facilities

Southern Virginia is served by four hospitals with a total of 730 beds. The Danville Regional Medical Center is a 290-bed major regional medical center offering comprehensive treatment including 24-hour emergency care, a maternity unit, and a substance abuse program. The hospital is affiliated with Virginia Commonwealth University's Medical Center and Duke University's School of Medicine. Memorial Hospital of Martinsville and Henry County, servicing the western part of the region, is a 223-bed comprehensive medical-surgical facility. Halifax Regional Hospital with 192 beds is an affiliate of the Halifax Regional Health System. Halifax Regional provides acute and long-term care, dementia care, behavioral health and outpatient services, home health and hospice care to the region. Pioneer Community Hospital of Patrick County is a 50-bed facility, providing general, urological, cataract, and pediatric surgery, as well as acute and intensive medical care.

Southern Virginia is served by more than 500 physicians and 125 dentists representing numerous medical and surgical specialties.

Nursing and extended care are available to area citizens through 15 nursing homes located throughout the region with a total of 2,004 beds.

The Riverwalk on the Dan is a popular amenity valued for its natural beauty and recreational opportunities. Its trails lure walkers and bikers through beautiful parks and natural areas, historic sites, and businesses.

Community Facilities

More than 900 places of worship are located in the region representing most major Protestant denominations, Catholic and Jewish faiths.

Four public library systems and ten branches are located throughout the region with a collection of more than 625,000 volumes. Additional library resources are available to the public at Averett College, Danville Community College, and Patrick Henry Community College.

Danville offers several major shopping centers and Piedmont Mall, a regional shopping mall. Martinsville commerce is centered in Liberty Fair Mall and the renovated central business district.
